

Greece & the Greek Isles in the Footsteps of Paul

Blog Day 4

We left our hotel in Athens and headed to the port city of Lavrion. The drive along the coast was beautiful, winding along the shoreline.

Off the bus and on to the ship - Celestyal Discovery. This will be our home for the next three days. It's a beautiful cruise ship with 12 decks, and about 1300 passengers on board. There are many tour groups like ours on this cruise.

We spent the day getting to know our way around the ship. This cruise is different than others we have taken as there are many ports in a short amount of time. Five ports in three days!

Our first port of call was Mykonos, a lovely Greek Island with shops and restaurants along the shoreline. We strolled through the streets and enjoyed a beautiful sunset.

Back to the ship for dinner and a good night sleep. Tomorrow will be a busy day.

Peace,
Pastor Charlie
